I'm looking at possibly moving you in 8/15 but I'd need to look over your paperwork first and see if there's anything that will take longer to verify.

Ok. We have a lease that will auto renew on July 31st for another year. Do you think we can go through everything before that date?

I'm afraid not, the tenants don't move out until August so I don't have anything open until Mid August at the very soonest.
